Bob Umlas

Bob Umlas has been using Excel since version 0.99 (1985). And he has been a Microsoft MVP for 25 years (longest running).

Bob has had more than 300 articles published, with subjects ranging from beginner to advanced macros, as well as on tips, shortcuts, and general techniques using virtually all aspects of Excel.

Bob Umlas is also the author of five Excel books: This Isn't Excel, It's Magic!; Excel Outside the Box; More Excel Outside the Box; Excel Preschool: a Method to Finally Understand What Excel is All About!; and *Cool Excel Sh*t*. And Bob has been the technical editor for many of Bill Jelen's Excel books as well.

Bob speaks regularly at Excel conferences on his favorite topic: Tips & Tricks...which wow even the experts! And he is the current leader of NYC's Excel Special Interest Group.

Bob is currently available for both Excel consulting and training work. You can reach Bob by email at Excel.Legend@rwsinfo.com. Or you can reach Bob by phone at 845-709-5409.

Final Note: Bob Umlas did all the Excel work on our products: InventoryMagic Spreadsheet (IMS), and TimeTracker (TT).
